RSA Has The Honor Of Attending The Blue Light Ceremony

The Blue Light Ceremony was originated by Concerns of Police Survivors (COPS) as a national lighting ceremony in remembrance of all peace officers who have lost their lives in the line of duty across the country. Seventy-two fallen peace officers were honored and remembered at this year's annual ceremony. Let your blue light shine in honor of the men and women who have made the ultimate sacrifice while serving their community.

Thank you to all those who attended and watched the ceremony live.

Body Scan International

RSA has partnered with Body Scan International to bring you ONSITE body scanning right on location at the RSA West offices!

Beginning now, you and your enrolled spouse can schedule a full body scan* at your convenience. The BSI Body Scan Program screens for diseases of greatest concern to the public safety sector – heart/cardiovascular disease, lower back and neck pathologies, over 20 different types of cancer, chronic lung disease, and many others.

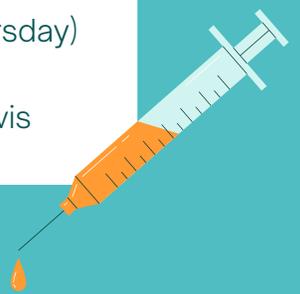

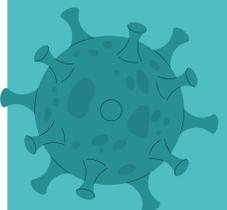

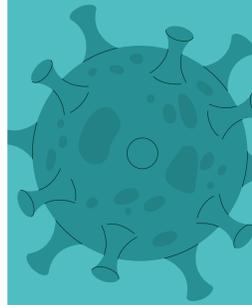

Using state-of-the-art mobile CT technology, you will receive a full 3-D visualization inside your body followed by a complete physician consultation. This is a non-invasive exam that provides a comprehensive, confidential look inside your torso to early-detect, or rule-out, “silent” lesions and anomalies.

The new and recently dispatched RSA Rollin' Smokehouse is looking for volunteers to help "Serve those who serve" at events to help feed our members and communities.

The Rollin' Smokehouse is dependent on volunteers as it is not staffed with paid employees. Therefore, we are creating a volunteer list for those who want to help before events for prep and during the actual events serving or cooking.

Members, spouses of members, dependents of members over 16 years of age, retirees, and friends of the membership are all welcome to help and volunteer. Culinary experience is always a plus, but not necessary as we will train you to be a culinary apprentice.

This is an excellent opportunity to give back to the membership and community and also gain valuable culinary training.

FOR RIVERSIDE SHERIFFS' ASSOCIATION LEGAL DEFENSE TRUST

This is a summary of the annual report of the Riverside Sheriffs' Association Legal Defense Trust, E.I.N. 33-6200313, Plan No. 501, for the year ended December 31, 2021. The annual report has been filed with the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, as required under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

The value of plan assets, after subtracting liabilities of the plan, was $5,273,788 as of December 31, 2021, compared to $5,356,998 as of January 1, 2021. During the plan year, the plan experienced a decrease in its net assets of $83,210. This decrease includes unrealized appreciation or depreciation in the value of plan assets; that is, the difference between the value of the plan's assets at the end of the year and the value of the assets at the beginning of the year, or the cost of assets acquired during the year. During the plan year, the plan had total income of $1,751,722 including employer contributions of $1,411,568, realized loss of $27,599 from the sale of assets and income from investments of $367,753.

Athlete Jada Zerembka Is An All-Star First

The California School For The Deaf's First County All-Star Talks Volleyball, Sisterhood, And The Pursuit Of Passion

RSA proudly sponsored the RSA Riverside County All-Star Volleyball Match on Nov. 12. The competition drew top local volleyball talent to Hillcrest High School in Riverside.

Among the athletes competing that day was Jada Zarembka from the California School for the Deaf in Riverside. RSA's Emily Kotyuk sat down to chat with Jada, who is the first player from the California School for the Deaf in Riverside to be selected for the RSA All-Star Volleyball Classic.

Jada said she was "very honored" by the selection and was shocked when she learned of it. Her accomplishments, both on and off the court, and her enthusiasm for the sport are what an "All-Star" is all about.

The 18-year-old high school senior says she is passionate about volleyball because it offers her an escape from "everything else in life". Her interest in the sport began in third grade, where watching games held her in awe of the players.

She eventually joined the Forza North volleyball league near Temecula and her schedule revolved around school, homework, and Forza.

Jada, who is third generation deaf in her family, found herself on a team with only one other deaf member. "Communication was extremely difficult," she said, making it a struggle.

The struggle didn't stop her, though. Jada put in the effort to bond with her teammates and says she's formed a sisterhood with many of them that continues to this day. That attitude of teamwork and connection has persisted through her volleyball career, making her both a valued player and an encouraging force for other players.

Jada has made sacrifices over the years for volleyball, missing opportunities like school dances so she can practice. When friends were out having fun on winter breaks Jada was honing her skills on the court.

|| Jada put in the effort to bond with her teammates and says she's formed a sisterhood with many of them that continues to this day. ||

“Volleyball is my priority and it’s been worth it,” she said.

Sometimes it’s a challenge balancing school and sports. Jada is heavily involved in the leagues, she’s taking advanced AP courses in school, and she’s the student body Vice President.

She said rushed schedules takes a toll on her mentally but “I have made it and pushed through.”

Jada’s passion for volleyball has led her to breaking four records in her time playing between hearing and deaf leagues. She says the experience has pushed her, helping her to thrive.

Jada credits her high school coach, Cassidy Clark, with helping her to improve her skills.

Where once a very young Jada watched volleyball players in amazement she says she now loves it when kids come to her at the end of a game and are so impressed with her skills.

Jada says she gets fired up when she plays. As an experienced player, she says she likes to show this excitement to rookie players. She cheers them on and encourages them to enjoy the game like she does.

“When someone is happy, I’m happy,” she said.

Playing against other deaf schools is especially exciting because it becomes such an emotional game. There is definitely trash talk through sign language as everyone gets fired up in the heat of competition.

Jada enjoys the after game experience by celebrating with her family where the excitement of the match lingers. She recounts a memorable game against East LA where her team was down 0 to 2. They rallied with a huge comeback, winning 3 to 2. Her team was able to pull it together, sharing the same mindset and getting their heads into the game and be organized.

The East LA team congratulated them on the win, another example of the sisterhood Jada experiences through volleyball. There is a bond, she says, through love of the game. However diverse the players’ lives are they all share a common experience on the court.

Jada says she needs to work a little differently with hearing teammates versus deaf ones. When playing in a hearing league she has to wave her hands to get attention. She can spell out letters to her hearing teammates and the opposing team has no idea what she’s saying.

When playing in a deaf league there is more communication through physical movement such as bumping shoulders.

Jada plans to follow up high school by attending Gallaudet University where she will play volleyball. Gallaudet is in her blood with many members of her family being alumni of the school. She is considering majoring in business or economics and maybe pursuing a career in real estate, as an accountant, or as an architect.

Still, volleyball remains in her future plans. Jada hopes to some day play in the deaf Olympics. ★

New Legislators, New Year

New Legislators Are Seated & Riverside County Adds Two Congressional Representatives

Ryan Sherman
Director,
Government Affairs

All 80 Assembly seats, along with half of the 40 Senate seats, were on the ballot for the November 2022 general election. The re-elected legislative incumbents were sworn in earlier this month along with ten new state Senators and 24 new Assemblymembers. Democrats picked up two more seats in the Assembly and one in the Senate.

Riverside County Congressional Delegation

- Congressional District 25 Raul Ruiz (D-Coachella) re-elected
- Congressional District 35 Norma Torres (D-unincorp NW county) re-elected
- Congressional District 39 Mark Takano (D-Riverside) re-elected
- Congressional District 40 Young Kim (R-unincorp W county) re-elected
- Congressional District 41 Ken Calvert (R-Corona) re-elected
- Congressional District 48 Darrell Issa (R-Temecula) re-elected

As you can see, 6 of the 10 legislators who represent part of Riverside County are brand new to their positions, they each have the ability to serve in these positions for the next 12 years.

During the last decade, just four members of Congress represented Riverside County. However, as a result of the recent re-districting, two more members now represent small parts of unincorporated areas of the county. Both of these incumbents served as state legislators in Sacramento before their election to Congress. We look forward to working with Representative Norma Torres of Pomona and Representative Young Kim of Fullerton.

THE 2023-2024 LEGISLATIVE SESSION... AND SO IT BEGINS

The new legislature met for one day only earlier this month to swear in new members and allow them to begin introducing bills for the new session.

Similar to last session, good bills dealing with fentanyl/opioid crisis, roll-backs for Prop 47 shoplifting limits, increased taxes on firearms and ammunition and severe restrictions on the number of public places where ccw permit holders may lawfully carry.

6 of the 10 legislators who represent part of Riverside County are brand new to their positions, they each have the ability to serve in these positions for the next 12 years.

Additionally, bills providing additional rights and privileges for criminal suspects and defendants have been introduced, along with other so-called “criminal justice reform” proposals that seek to limit the ability of law enforcement officers to effectively and safely perform their sworn duties.

While some of these new bills have been introduced with specificity and include the actual language that the authors hope to become enacted law, many other bills are essentially placeholders containing little to no statutory language.

Such bills are considered “intent” bills since they have little to no actual language in the body and simply state that, “It is the intent of the legislature to introduce legislation” that addresses the topic identified by the legislator. The actual language for these proposals will be loaded in the bills over the next few months.

“ Bills providing additional rights and privileges for criminal suspects and defendants have been introduced. ”

By the time the new bill deadline arrives in February, well over 2,000 proposed laws will be introduced. This session will see a lot of new lawmakers - in addition to the many legislators who are about to term out of office wanting to make their mark this session.

We’ll keep you posted.

Hope you all have a very Merry Christmas and New Year or enjoy whatever other holidays you celebrate.

Until next month, be safe. ★

This session will see a lot of new lawmakers - in addition to the many legislators who are about to term out of office wanting to make their mark this session.
